

LOCAL SCHOLARSHIPS

2009-2010

The Scholarships listed below have been available in the past. Given the current economic times, there is no guarantee that all will be given each year, but apply anyway. Remember, these are the scholarships given from the heart. Not all of these families and organizations are multimillionaires; they give because they care about one they have lost and about each of your futures!!!

BE RESPONSIBLE - keep checking this site or come into guidance and look in the gray file drawer marked "Scholarships" (located next to computer table).

- 🕒 to see which scholarships will be offered this year
- 🕒 to check the deadline dates
- 🕒 to check the procedure for applying for the scholarships

DEADLINES – Don't wait to the last day, you may be absent and miss out on being considered for a scholarship!

1. Keep checking this site, some deadlines may change from year to year.
2. Write a good letter, if required. Use the computer, unless specifically asked to handwrite the letter. Do not use whiteout. Ask a teacher, preferably an English teacher, for assistance if necessary.
3. Always be alert: You may be eligible for other scholarships. Read the newspapers, check with your church, religious organizations, etc. for scholarships. Check with your parents. Do they belong to a fraternal organization or labor union that awards scholarships?
4. Be realistic about monies:
  - a. Be sure to include all fees (some schools list tuition and then add on fees totaling thousands of dollars).
  - b. If you are commuting make sure you add in the cost of transportation.
  - c. Selection committees feel that when you put "zero" for parent's contribution you are not being honest. Most parents contribute some money toward your education. If they are not, take the time to explain why they cannot or will not contribute.
5. PROCEDURE FOR FORM L SCHOLARSHIPS: YOU CAN NOT COMPLETE FORM L UNTIL YOU HAVE DECIDED WHERE YOU WILL BE ATTENDING COLLEGE

- 🕒 Form L is a generic application form used to apply for most local scholarships.
- 🕒 We have included a copy of the Form L at the end of this list.

It is only necessary to fill Form L out once.

1. Leave the name of the scholarship blank.
2. Determine for how many scholarships you will be applying, and make that many copies.
3. Put the name of the scholarship on the Form L and return to Guidance (unless noted).
